H.Con.Res. 62 – Supporting the goals and ideals of a National Children and Families Day

Floor Situation

H.Con.Res. 62 is being considered on the floor under suspension of the rules and will require a two-thirds majority vote for passage. This legislation was introduced by Representative Tom Davis (R-VA) on February 8, 2007. The bill was ordered to be reported from the Committee on House Oversight and Government Reform, by unanimous consent, on February 28, 2007.

H.Con.Res. 62 is expected to be considered by the House on March, 6 2007.

Summary

H.Con.Res. 62 supports the goals and ideas of National Children and Families Day and sets aside the fourth Saturday of June, to recognize the importance of children and families.

Background

H.Con.Res. 62 supports the goals and ideals of a National Children and Families Day, in order to encourage adults in the United States to support and listen to children and to help children throughout the Nation achieve their hopes and dreams.

Research shows that spending time together as a family is critical to raising strong and resilient kids and that strong healthy families improve the quality of life and the development of children.

Cost

H.Con.Res. 62 has not been scored by the Congressional Budget Office.
